Editorial Change. We learn with regret from the Mereury of Saturday last, that our friend George C. Maron, Eq. kas resigned the editorial management of that paper. Mr. Mason has been connected with the press of this city for many years in the capacity of editor, and his labora have that with success and encouragement. The Mercury under his control has been universally popular at home and respected abroad. Its circulation, from more nothing, has von beyond the most sanguine expectations, and the whole catablishment is now in the most courishing condition.

The first or "molden" articles of the editor of this paper, were printed in the Mercury, by Mr. Mason's suggestions, not many years ago, and Mr. M. himself revised and corrected them for the press, long before we ever expected to become his contempo-

Court of Justices,

FRIDAY, Aug. 20, Mortha Rivers was again gallanted to the court room by Inspector Hazard, and arraigned on a charge of abstructing an officer in the discharge of his duty. She plead "not guilty," and W. P. Sheffield, E. q., appeared as her counsel.

The particulty of this case were elicited at the previous trial of Martha, and were reported in our paper of Wednesday, with alight additions in the testimony in the present instance. The offence was upon the person of the Mayor; and the burden of Mr. Sheffield's orgument was, that His Honor, at the time of the arrest, was not there in the capacity of the arresting officer, and consequently the complaint against his client was not sustained. The learned counsel waved eliquent, facetious, and prithetic by turns, and we imagined that at times we could discover the least hit of fog gathering about the heads of the crudite Judges on the bench, when a pull from Judge Greene would send a all away, Now the learned counsel would some uloft in the exuberance of his eloquence, till like a balloon he seemed to touch the clouds, and anon Judge Greene would reach up and pull him down. After toiling in this way for half an hour, gaining positions only to have them pulled from under them, the client's friend sat down, and his Honor the City Solicitor occupied a very few moments. in demonstrating his duty and the position he occupied as Chief of the Police Department. Martha was bound over for trial at the August term of the Supreme Court,

The Court decided the case to be ustained, and required Martha to find sureties in the sum of three hundred dullars for her appearance at the August term of the Supreme Court to answer-failing to do which she was committed.

David Peters was arraigned on a charge of stealing and destroying a serew-place, the property of James W. Shaw. David is an Ethiopean of the most sable kind, of the tenderinge of eleven years, but with depravity enough in his looks and actions for a man of forty. He plead annt guilty,5 was tried, adjudged guilty, and sentenced to the Povidence Reform School during minority. He took the sentence with an air of exultation, remarking that he did not care, for there he should get a plenty of grab" and good clathes, both of which he appeared to stand very much in need of.

Lewis Brown, another juvenile Ethiapoan of about the same ago as the above was next arraigned, and plead "guilty" to a charge of assault upon Charles Weeden-Oconoe T. Hamson, Rea.

CORRESPONDENCE.

New York, Aug. 20, 1858. Mit. Eurron:--- All the world felt joby yesterday, on the receipt of Mrs. Victoria Guelph's compliments, in fall, to "the H xorable James Buchanan, President of the United States"-said of course, New York, which is the "middle of the world," felt ditto, and exhibited her joy in any quantity of cannon-firing in the day-time, and by the most brilliant and imposing displays of P. lumination, fire works, lanners, etc., at erening.—The exultation and enthusiasm of our three quarters of a million of people seemed to be all but universal.

Such a beautiful and general illumination of public houses, newspaper offices, and large lusiness establishments in various parts of the city, has not before been had in these "dirgins," since Hedsen's discovery or the isle of Manhatta. But the "conclusion of the whole matter," in burning up, or at least trying to burn up, the City Hall, was a most unpleasant drawback upon the bilarity of the occasion. The damage of that fine old structure will not, it is supposed, fall short of $20,009. The long cupols, with its illuminated clock dirls, has wholly disappeared, and the whole apper story of the central portion of the holdling is des royed. When I saw the fire, at I welock P. M., it scemed nearly cortain that the whole edifice would be consumed.

What a miserable piece of botch-work by the way, was made by the Ocean Telegraph in the transmission of the Queen's Message!-sending through a single paragraph, without date or signature, which fragment was instantly flashed all over the land as the royal dispatch for which all Yankeedom had been so eagerly waiting. The document was so very brief, tame and pointless, that the public did not know whether to accept it as genuine, or to conclude it a humbug.

The President, no less than " the rest of mankind," was nouplussed-didu't know what to think of such a queer royal message as that, nor whether to set about the construction of his reply, or to wait for something more satisfactory. But an assurance from Frioity Bay, that it was "all right," induced him to pen an answer-when log this Trinity Bay assurance was thoroughly knocked in the head the next morning by the transmission of the remaining threequarters of Her Majestr's dispatch,-so that, at last, the royal message looked quite respectable, barring the signature and date which are still lacking. We ought not, perhaps, to complain, under the circumstances-but how vexatious and provoking!

The town has been so full of the "cable," and the "message," and the consequent rejoicing, that there has been no time nor room for much of anything else since Monday. The cable laying steamer Niagara arrived yesterday, with Yessrs. Field and Hudson, who have been transformed into lions" of no common magnitude, by the success which has attended their efforts .-They are to be specially honored by New York and Brooklyn.

One little event-and not a very small one, either -- which occurred before the Queen's Message, fractional or total, appeared, deserves notice. The firm of Donglas & Sherwood in White street, which emplays 780 girls in the manufacture of "crinoline," or hooped shirts, gave a pie-nic holiday to their workers a few days since, conveying them all to David's island up the Sound, by steamboats and barges, with bands of music and refreshments—the firm paying the whole expense of the whole number, the same as a hough they had been at work. There's an example of kindness and generosity, which the employers of females, especially, would do well to imitate.

"Alligator" Branch, who has been drilling stone for a week or two at Blackwell's Island, has, through his counsel, succeeded in getting a writ of error issued in his behalf by the Supreme Court, so as to have the record of his trial brought up for review. Branch was tried and condemned for gross and outrageous libels on the Mayor and other propin 'DI CILIZENS.] doubt if he can get relieved, yet awhile.

A shocking number of Valentina Geiger a young German woman of 19, by a jealous lover, Philip Morganlicimer, in Houston street, and his own almost inunediate sui cide by shooting, in 6th street, were perpetrated on Tuesday night. What Satanie fonts there are, in this world-and what sights of them! If they only had wit enough to make their own exit without destroying other folks, the world might afford to think less unfavorably of the tribe.
